

I'd Rather Have You

Earth, Wind & Fire

Of all the loves I've had in my life
I'd rather have you
Whatever they were, no matter how nice
They can't compare Scheming wealth isn't nothing
I'd rather have you
Wealthy or not
We'll always have so much to share 'Cause I know that I'll love you forever, you're mine
I wouldn't take riches for your love
There's nothin' in this world
I'd rather have than you
I just can't stay away
I love you, I love you Even the sun is nothin' to me
I'd rather have you
The warmth that it gives soon would grow cold
If you were near 'Cause I know that I'll love you forever, you're mine
I wouldn't take riches for your love
There's nothin' in this world
I'd rather have than you
I just can't stay away
I love you, I love you I love you, I love you, yes I do
Of all of the loves in my life my darling
I'd [Incomprehensible] rather have you, you
[Incomprehensible] the love of you
I love you, I love you, love you yeah
Love you, you
