

Dreaming

DaVille

It's a new day
Something feels strange
I'm walking in the clouds
I'm almost touching the stars
Anything is possible, imaginable
Am I dreaming?
All normal things start to change
Can feel no gravity
I step outside the atmosphere
Nothing seems impossible, unreachable
How strange it feels
Moving in slow motion
I guess I must be dreaming
Now

No, is this real
Or my imagination?
I guess I must be dreaming
Dreaming, dreaming, dreaming, dreaming?
I guess I must be dreaming
Dreaming, dreaming, dreaming, dreaming?
