Powder Blue Earth

Holly Henry

Some nights I just don't sleep
And lose my mind gradually
Over a decade or so
Losing minutes of I don't knowMy friends keep me awake
I hear them laugh but they're all just shapes
Dancing in a cold dark blue dawn
Until they finally let me go homeI live in this powder blue earth x5My life under the sun
Could never feel as real as this one
But when my friends keep me awake
By slamming doors it's no longer funMy mind gone so wrong turned into a dust blue dawnI live in this powder blue earth x3My mind gone so wrong turned into a dust blue dawn
