

So Much

DJ Shirshnev

So near, so far, this close to her heart
The right word, the right time
I know she would've been all mine
One day she's bound to see how much she needs me
Did you ever wanna touch somebody so much
You could almost feel it
Did you ever wanna kiss somebody
So much you thought about stealin' it
Did you ever wanna say something to somebody so much
You're just about to say it
There you are professing your love
But she's walking away it hurts so much
I bide my time, spin my wheels like a mercury dime
It's heads it's tails, plan C cannot fail
Twelve roses sent her way
Chocolates melting on a summer day
Did you ever wanna touch somebody so much
You could almost feel it
Did you ever wanna kiss somebody
So much you thought about stealin' it
Did you ever wanna say something to somebody so much
You're just about to say it
There you are professing your love
But she's walking away it hurts so much
I think she's playing a little hard to get
Ooh, you'd think by now I'd had enough
I'm never gonna give it up
Did you ever wanna touch somebody so much?
You could almost feel it
Did you ever wanna kiss somebody
So much you thought about stealin' it
Did you ever wanna say something to somebody so much
You're just about to say it
She's my life, she spins my world
You know I love that girl so much
Ooh, so much, so much
Ooh, so much, so much
Ooh, so much, so much
Ooh, so much
