These Tears

Dawn Richard

These tears (these tears), these tears
Its raining tonight
And I'm not talking bout outside
There's a storm that's comin
And disguised your life
Your coming home late
What is her name, tell me
I'm hanging on the promise you made
I said I wouldn't do this
I'll be strong enough to take it
I guess that I need time
Even big girls they cry
Everybody said girl be patient
They said Dawn he'll come around slowly
When is his turn to try
I'm asking myself why
These tears these tears
They fall for you they fall for you they fall
These tears these tears
They fall for you they fall for you they fall
They fall (they fall) aww yeah yeah (aww yeah yeah) aww yeah
Its so cold tonight
And the way my heart feels ain't right
I could feel it melting like its fire on ice
No longer I wont wait
I wont be the same
I'm running for the promise you've made
I said I wouldn't do this
I'll be strong enough to take it
I guess that I need time
Even big girls they cry
Everybody said girl be patient
They said Dawn hell come around slowly

When is his turn to try
I'm asking myself why
These tears these tears
They fall for you they fall for you they fall
These tears these tears

They fall for you they fall for you they fall
I wont shed another tear for you
I'm moving on I can't stay here with you
I'm not the same after all you put me through
But its okay cause neither will you
Oh oh yeah yeah yeah
These tears these tears
They fall for you (they fall for you) they fall for you they fall
They fall for you they fall for you they fall (they fall baby)
These tears these tears
They fall for you they fall for you they fall
These tears these tears
They fall for you they fall for you they fall
Theses tears these tears
That these tears these tears
I said I wouldn't do this
I guess that I need time
Everybody said please be patient
They said Dawn hell come around slowly
I'm asking myself why
They fall for you they fall for you they fall
These tears these tears
