

Sorry Lately

Mark Owen

You think that there's something wrong
Maybe I stayed too long
Or maybe you're just getting into me
Can't get to sleep again, spending our lives away
But you don't know what you mean to me, do ya?
Do you wanna take me over? Do ya, do ya?
I feel so alive, feels like I'll live forever
I'm not afraid no more, I'm not afraid no more
I am so now here, standing in a moment
Her love flows like a river until she says it's over
Come in you'll catch a cold
Maybe we're getting old
Or maybe we're just getting into it
When are you coming round? We're going underground
We don't even know how we're doing it, do ya?
Do you wanna make me over, do ya? Do ya?
I feel so alive, feels like I'll live forever
I'm not afraid no more, I'm not afraid no more
I am so now here, standing in a moment
Her love flows like a river until she says it's over
I've been losing myself here lately
Sorry lately, I feel so alive
I've been losing myself here
Feel alive, I've been losing myself here
So don't, so don't go, don't ever go away
Don't ever go away
So don't, don't, don't, don't ever go away
Come in you'll catch a cold
Maybe we're getting old
Or maybe we're just getting into it
