Blind

Milk Inc.

I've sent my goodbyes
Made no excuse
I'm not in this game
to win or to loose
But you, I pity you fool
unable to see the wedge that's been driven
between you and me

We've played our last scene danced our last dance your story goes on but our chapter ends
And you, don't have a clue what you've put me through I made up my mind
gotta leave you behind

Tears make it hard to see that I'm just a memory

Too blind to see
You're too blind to see
Too blind to see the signs
Too blind to see
You're to blind to see
That I'm leaving you behind
So open your eyes
open your eyes
can't you see I'm not in love
So open your eyes
open your eyes
one look is enough
too blind to see.

I've sent my goodbyes
Made no excuse
I'm not in this game
to win or to loose

the wedge that's been driven
between you and me

Tears make it hard to see
that I'm just a memory

Open your eyes
Open your eyes

Too blind to see
You're too blind to see
That I'm leaving you behind
So open your eyes
open your eyes
can't you see I'm not in love
So open your eyes
one look is enough
too blind to see.
