

The Ocean Walker

Becoming the Archetype

I walked across the ocean
To the island of the dead
I climbed the mighty tidal wave
All other men have dreadI alone am standing
Standing in a world of silenceThe tsunami and the hurricane
Bow downI alone am standing
Standing in a world of silenceThe tsunami and the hurricane
Bow down at My commandAll the oceans filled with death
I have consumed in a single breath
I am the fountainhead
And I am bringing back the dead
