Waiting for Tomorrow

Burning Jet Black

Its everything that I cant say
You say youre here but never are
Ive let it all just slip away
Im grasping at the shortest straw
Tortured and terrified I am
Not proud of what you made of me
Im tempted and Im telling lies
To all that know that youre not hereAnd Im waiting for tomorrow
And Im waiting for tomorrow
And I'm waiting for tomorrowWords were etched in waves retreating
Washing off and wading on
Creeping doubts they kept repeating
Seems a waste to look back now
Three hundred sixty five Im spinning
Brings me right back here to you
You say the end is the beginning
Hopes a place that I can seeAnd Im waiting for tomorrow
And Im waiting for tomorrow
And I'm waiting for tomorrowIll give you anything you want
Ill give you anything you need
Ill give you anything you want
You take from me
Ill give you anything you want
Ill give you anything you need
Ill give you anything you want
You want from meAnd Im waiting for tomorrow
And Im waiting for tomorrow
And I'm waiting for tomorrow
And on and on and on and on we go
