Throw It All Away

Default

This feeling's back today
It's so deceiving, like it's never leaving
Same as yesterday
As the pressure's mounting, I continue countingWhy can't I drive this image from my mind?
It's true that you pushed me to the pointI think I've taken all, I'm going to take
This really starts to sting
The bullshit and the baggage that you bring
I'm gonna throw it all away, throw it all awayI feel like I'm on trial
It's never ending, not worth defending
Been like this for awhile
The tides are turning, I'm finally learningWhy can't I drive this image from my mind?
It's true that you pushed me to the pointI think I've taken all, I'm going to take
This really starts to sting
The bullshit and the baggage that you bring
I'm gonna throw it all away, throw it all awayThrow it all away
Throw it all away
Throw it all away
Throw it all awayWhy can't I drive this image from my mind?
It's true that you pushed me to the pointI think I've taken all, I'm going to take
This really starts to sting
The bullshit and the baggage that you bringI think I've taken all, I'm going to take
This really starts to sting
The bullshit and the baggage that you bring
I'm gonna throw it all away, throw it all away
