Army of None

Rising Appalachia

please donâ€™t go away from me i said please donâ€™t go away from me
(begin confusing first few lines that could use some editing) its a canyon from my home? hotness wasteland of sand and?
its not that Iâ€™m so comfortable here i awoke in? some elseâ€™s strange dreams calculated footsteps destructive and stuck in some faraway seas its not familiar but still pristine Iâ€™m still pointing barrels at another damn i just wanted that college degree but now iâ€™m blocked and locked in this faulty plan and maybe its the wrong fight the wrong land but i find myself feeling confound i got letters leaving paper trails of unrest son would you mind putting me to the test iâ€™m looking to put it down the gun pick up the hammer pick up the shovel the maze returning to your sweet gaze back by your side i donâ€™t want to be on the outside but youâ€™re still too far away, far awayâ€¦â€¦

i said, pleaseâ€¦. donâ€™t go away from me
i said, pleaseâ€¦. donâ€™t go away from me i said please,
donâ€™t go away
please donâ€™t go away
please donâ€™t go away
donâ€™t go away
pleaseâ€¦.
donâ€™t go awayâ€¦â€¦
