Walking Away

Catch 22

Well, hello, how are you, won't you pull the chair?
Won't you tell me story because I really do care
About talking, talking, talking awayHere's to me, to you, to us
To everything, hope it never falls apart
We're talking, talking, talking awayWell, you look so fine and you seem so kind
And I've gotta say that I'm having a good time
Dancing, dancing, dancing awayHere's to me, to you, to us
To everything, hope it never falls apart
We're dancing, dancing dancing awayCan things get any better now?
If they can, I cannot see how
But as the time goes by, you stop and sigh
You stop and sigh and then you wonder whyCan't stop feeling as I'm walking away
And I could never understand half things you'd say
As we're walking, walking, walking awaySo he said, here's to me, to you, to us
To everything that it fell apart as we're Walking, walking, walking awayThings weren't better then
You felt that you had to pretend
But as the time goes by, you stop and sigh
You stop and sigh and then you wonder why
