

Sunset Dreams

Roger Smith

Covered in darkness a time that is past
Waiting adrift, they cannot hold back
Cannot hold back
Tear misted eyes standing alone
A broken will over all that they've known
Out in the distance far is the calling
Shadows still steal
Through the place that they knew
A vision that's empty is what they see
The eyes of tomorrow on sunset dreams
Sorrow deepens only to tell
That silence speaks where words cannot mend
Words cannot mend
A vision that's empty is what they see
The eyes of tomorrow, look to sunset dreams
Out in the distance far is the calling
Shadows still steal
Through the place that they knew
A vision that's empty is what they see
The eyes of tomorrow on sunset dreams
Covered in darkness a time that is past
Waiting adrift, they cannot hold back
Cannot hold back
Tear misted eyes standing alone
A broken will over all that they've known
Out in the distance far is the calling
Shadows still steal
Through the place that they knew
A vision that's empty is what they see
The eyes of tomorrow on sunset dreams
