Sleepwalkers Dream

Delain

Close your eyes
For the night is falling
Fear no dark for it's warm and safe
And looks familiar as it comes approaching
Come with me and I will take you

On a world beyond your sleep
Beyond whatâ€™s real
In safety, a hidden sphere
Away from our daily reality
Truth lies out there, the truth lies out there.

As the innocent lay their heads down
As the night chants its luring call
Cross the borders of sense and foresight
Come with me and I will take you
You don't have to be afraid

A tear is only water
A sigh is only air
Whenever you feel haunted
The truth lies out there, the truth lies out there.

On a world beyond your sleep
Beyond whatâ€™s real
In safety, a hidden sphere
Away from our daily reality
Truth lies out there, the truth lies out there.
