

Promise Man

Holy Soldier

The world is crashing down
Lemmings fall and I'm watchin' em go
There's a hand that's reaching out
It could save them but they just say no
Blame, blame, blame, point the finger, say the name
Blame, blame, blame, again
Shame, shame, shame, how we take His name in vain
But shame never forgets a face
But there's a promise of peace, a promise of truth
A promise to me, a promise to you
He knows us by name like each grain of sand
The Promise Man
The Earth is run aground
She bought into what she was sold
And her sin without a sound
Grew so big that swallowed her whole
Blame, blame, blame, point the finger, say the name
Blame, blame, blame, again
Shame, shame, shame, how we take His name in vain
But shame never forgets a face
But there's a promise of peace, a promise of truth
A promise to me, a promise to you
He knows us by name like each grain of sand
The Promise Man
There's a promise of peace, a promise of truth
A promise to me, a promise to you
He knows us by name like each grain of sand
The Promise Man
There's a promise of peace, a promise of truth
A promise to me, a promise to you
He knows us by name like each grain of sand
The Promise Man, the Promise Man
