Second Time

Julian Lennon

Won't you be my love again
Won't you be my love again
For the second timeWalking down this dusty road
I can leave them all behind
Where I'm off to no one knows
It brings me peace of mindI'm looking for my true friend
The one that really cares
Walking down this dusty road
Gives me strength to shareWon't you be my love again
For the second time
You know you're gonna be in line
Won't you be my love again
For the second time
You know you're gonna be in lineWill you be my witness
To this love affair
Will you be the one for me
The answers to my prayersWon't you be my love again
For the second time
You know you're gonna be in line
Won't you be my love again
For the second time
You know you're gonna be in lineWon't you be my love again
For the second time
You know you're gonna be in line
Won't you be my love again
For the second time
You know you're gonna be in lineFor the second time
You know you're gonna be in line
