

Blast from the Past

Goldenboy

There was a time when I used to be angry
There was a time when I should have been left alone
Those days are gone, I guess it shouldn't matter
More than enough to figure out on my own
A faded past and a blurry future
The questions asked, intentions never known
I will forget, it's not forgiven
A good thing that my bitterness is gone All I want is a reason to let go
Nothing more and nothing less
You don't even miss me at all
All I am, is what you'll never know
This time has wounded more than healed
You don't even miss me...
There was a time when I used to be angry
There was a time when I used to be someone else
Back in the days, it all felt shattered
Way back when it didn't make any sense
A blurry past- a hopeful future
If intended questions will be asked
No remorse, I don't need answers
This I never will regret! Bring the days back, bring the fight back or look up Let it all go and bring me along
Breathe in, breathe out...
Let go!
