

Sara

Fleetwood Mac

Wait a minute baby
Stay with me awhile
Said, you'd give me light
But you never told me about the fireDrownin', in the sea of love
Where everyone would love to drown
But now it's gone, it doesn't matter what for
So when you build your house, then call me homeOoh, and it was just like a great dark wind
Within the wings of a storm, I think I had met my match
He was singin' and undoing and undoing
The laces, undoing the lacesHe said, "Sara, you're the poet in my heart Never change, never stop"
But now it's gone, it doesn't matter what for
But when you build your house, then call me, call meHold on the night is comin'
And the starling flew for days
And I would stay home at night all the time
I could go anywhere, anyway, anywayAsk me and I'm there, yeah, ask me and I'm there, I care
In the sea of love where everyone would love to drown
But now it's gone, they say it doesn't matter any more
Well, if you build you house then please call meSara, you're the poet in my heart
Never change, and dont you ever stop
But now it's gone, no, it doesn't matter anymore
When you build your house, Ill go byOoh, Sara
Ah, oohOh, ooh, Sara, baby
There was a heartbeat and it never really died
Yes, it never really died
Oh, will you swallow your pride?All I ever wanted was
To know that you were dreaming
