Tear The World Down

We Are The Fallen

I've fought another day,
Lose another chance to break away
From all I cannot bear.
I suffer through through the shame
Wishing hope would just abandon me
Till this is over.
My loveless life
I'm lost in you tonight
Waiting for you to turn around
Only to tear the whole world down.
Time and time again
Take it all and take the fall for you.
Fear is all I hold
Bound and beaten down
All the pain I can't escape today
Is always with me
My loveless life

I'm lost in you tonight
Waiting for you to turn around
Only to tear the whole world down.
My darkest night
Your arms that hold me tight
Waiting for you to turn around
Only to tear the whole world down.
All my love is lost
All my hope is gone
All my love is lost
All my hope is gone
My loveless life
I'm lost in you tonight
Waiting for you to turn around
Only to tear the whole world down.
My darkest night
Your arms that hold me tight
Waiting for you to turn around
Only to tear the whole world down.
