

Par for the Course

Aimee Mann

It's par for the course
You bet the wrong horse
You put down the phone and cried
For yourself
And for what
You couldn't have a plea
That won't do
Now that she
Serves it to you And I don't even know you
I don't even know you anymore
I don't even know you
I don't even know you It's all you deserve
The loss of the nerve
The grade of the curve
Has brought you to this
By the boat that you missed
You clung to the raft
So she swerved out of your path And I don't even know you
I don't even know you anymore
I don't even know you anymore-guitar solo-You loved her a lot
But she lost the plot
And timing is everything
In this game
So let's have
A moment of blame Think how
It could have been
Well you should
Have said it all then And I don't even know you
I don't even know you anymore
I don't even know you anymore-string solo-I don't even know you anymore
I don't even know you anymore
