What You Gonna Do Boy?

Cleopatra

I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?Sitting at the window
Trying to make sense of my life
(Sitting at the window)
Searching for something
To fill this emptiness insideThe day you left
(Walked right out of my life)
It's only you
(Who makes me feel alright)
Now I'm hoping that we both can try again
So I'm asking youI'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?Looking at memories
And the times we used to share
(Memories)
I know I still love you
But it seems you just don't careThe day you left
(Walked right out of my life)
It's only you
(Who makes me feel alright)
Now I'm hoping that we both can try again
Tell me babyWhat you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?What you gonna do, boy?
What you gonna say?Say what, what you gonna do
(What you gonna do?)
Say what, say what, what you gonna say?
(What you gonna say? Come on)Say what, what you gonna do?
(Say it)
Say what, what you gonna say?
(No)Never saw it coming
Never thought you'd break my heart
Feel like I'm dying
Now my world has fell apartThe day you left
(Walked right out of my life)

It's only you
(Who makes me feel alright)
Now I'm hoping that we both can try again
Know I'mI'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
I'm asking you, what you gonna do, boy?
I'm asking you, what you gonna say?
