Skin Un Skin

Bleed The Sky

Crawl, you're passive, you want to come in
Crawl, walk in, walk out, breathe in, bleed out
Walk in, walk out, breathe in, bleed out
Walk in, walk out, let it all fade awayCold because you tried, your light is shed
No one hears when you pray, only when you cry, your light is shed
How can you take part in bloodshed, bloodshed?
Our dreams contains shades of all the fucking bloodshedLeave it all to your sin, hiding blinding pride
Know it's all in your head, only when you cry, show me salvation
How can you take part in bloodshed, bloodshed?
Our dreams contains shades of all the fucking bloodshedIt's beautiful, you're up from the backside
You want to come in, can't you see it's my time?
Fuck it, you're conceited, undefeated
Can't you see it's my time? No more rhetoricThat's right, crime, salvation, pride, salvation
