Pacino

IllScarlett

All alone, and I can't calm the screaming
I need to know, need a reason for dreaming
I believe in a life that can't be trusted, tryin' to figure out
Figure out what its all about, oh its all supposed to be
I listen to the wind, I try to read the waves
Always-ugh, nothing, nothing... counts

Don't say these words don't count for anything, I guess its all the ways

Sometimes I can feel it like a friend whose spread a secret over me
Pass out all our energy
But I got this burning inside, resist there's no where to go hide
So be, so be...it

Don't say these words don't count for anything, I guess its all the ways
Life is overrated and it's always missing pages, I guess I can't be safe

It's just this feeling I can't be safe
No time for dreaming I can't be safe
Wish I can see it I can't be safe

Don't say these words don't count for anything, I guess its all a waste. Sha!
Life is overrated and its always missing pages, I guess I can't be safe

I can't be safe, I can't be safe
