July

Beach Bunny

In July the sun was high
The world was melting
Through the sky

Who am I?
Sometimes I get a little
Paranoid
Tryin' to figure it out
Sun sets, only through the daylight
At night, what does it become?

In July we ran away
Through hurricanes and tidal waves
Sunburnt smiles, freckled face
Our heads were filled with outerspace

In July the sun the was high
The world was melting through the sky
We wore laughter in our eyes
Everything is alright

Who are you?
Well, I canâ€™t explain it
Something more
Than Iâ€™ve seen before
We are moons on the horizon
Youâ€™re a wave
Breaking against the shore

In July we ran away
Through hurricanes and tidal waves
Sunburnt smiles, freckled face
Our heads were filled with outerspace

In July the sun the was high
The world was melting through the sky
We wore laughter in our eyes
Everything is alright

Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da

Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da

In July we ran away
Through hurricanes and tidal waves
Sunburnt smiles, freckled face
Our heads were filled with outerspace

In July the sun the was high
The world was melting through the sky
We wore laughter in our eyes

In July we ran away

In July the sun the was high
The world was melting through the sky
We wore laughter in our eyes

Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
Ba-ba-ba, ba-ba-da-da
