You Saved Me

The Elms

The killers, they won't stop!
The pirates are on top, stealing all the good we made.
The nomads are faithless, and people are restless,
Searching for the love that saves.I've got so much left to give, and you gotta release me.
You gotta release me. I've got so much left to give.I'll stand and walk out on my own.
And I'm not alone on this road.
You saved me.
My mind and vision are clear,
And I'm not alone while you're here.
You saved me.Down through the ages, I've been stuck in cages,
Giving up before I'm down.
When all my ambition became my religion,
Still I knew you were around.
