Now's the Time

Virtue

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideListen to that voice that's quietly calling your name
Answer and I promise you will never be the same
It's your life we're talking here so have no fear
Don't you think it's time you have peace of mind?Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideNow's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideNow your eyes won't filled with the tears of loneliness
That's good news, true love and nothing less
You can start anew just give your life to Jesus
He will make you brand newNow's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideNow's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideDon't wait, tomorrow might be too late
Why wait, won't you let Him in?
He wants to show you love unconditionalForever more and you'll know
How much He loves you, yeah, yeah, yeah
You better choose this day
Make a choice right nowNow's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideNow's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideNow's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your sideNow's the time to choose
Now's the time
Now's the time to choose
Now's the time

Now's the time to choose
Now's the time
Don't you let another day go by
