

The Wall

Spark Gap

Look at me my friend, I'm afraid to lose again,
Everything I know is condemned,
This I know, this I know, this I know.Get away from the blues,
Get some new climbin shoes.

Got a vertical getaway plan.Holding us strong to the ground,
There's some glue in the blue times around.
Fear is the gravity, fear is the enemy,
Now I know, yeah I know, yeah I know.Get away from the blues,
Get some new climbing shoes.

Got a vertical getaway plan.Climb higher to know the truth about you.
Scramble the fears away, the wall, the wall.
Climb higher to know the truth about you.

Scramble the fears away, the wall, the wall.Take a piss on the pessimism,
Mutism is treason, good reason for screaming,
That I know, that I know, that I know.

That I know, that I know, that I know.Get away from the blues,
Get some new climbing shoes.

Got a vertical getaway plan.ChorusChorus
