Everything

Outasight

I can never be your everything, anything, all the things you want
You keep asking for but you never gonâ€™ get
I can never be the one to light your smoke, laugh at your joke
Fix you up when you were broke, truer words were never spoke
I can never be what you family wants, Ivy League, clean cut Dream house in the burbs, yard as far as the eyes can see
I can never be standing there while you sitting round
Talking to your friends about shit I just donâ€™t care about

[Chorus]
Everything that you want, you just canâ€™t have, you just canâ€™t have
No, itâ€™s never enough, you got everything, all you want is more
Everything that you want, you just canâ€™t have, you just canâ€™t have
No, itâ€™s never enough, you got everything, all you want is more
You got everything, all you want is more
You got everything, what you want?

I can never be the one to pick you up every time you fall Another summer you went AWOL, youâ€™re not something Iâ€™m looking for I can never be the one to read your mind like an open book
Donâ€™t want a peak, donâ€™t need a look, been there too many times before
I can never be the one to light your smoke, laugh at your joke
Give you money when you were broke, truer words were never spoke
I can never be watching you with all friends
Talking all that junk again, sorry but everythingâ€™s changed

[Chorus]

See, I'mma fool for your loving but I had to learn when push came to shove
When you spent my last dollar, donâ€™t pick up my call at all
And I didnâ€™t hear back for a week, no, you standing at my door
Looking fine in a trench and Iâ€™m pretty damn sure ainâ€™t nothing underneath
Sheesh and Iâ€™m only human, please donâ€™t judge me for what we doing

[Chorus]

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by LOBBAN-BEAN, WILLIAM / CONTE, RICHARD ANDREW Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/