Reflections

Scars Of Tomorrow

Taken away, taken away, taken away
To a time and place that brings you peace
That brings you peace
That clears your mindYou're changed by a shard of glass
Impaled by grief
Impaled by grief
Impaled by griefYou're changed by a shard of glass
Impaled by grief
Impaled by grief
Impaled by griefReflections, reflections
Of a past that you can't forget
Reflections, reflections
Of a time you can't forgetYou saw your tortured past come to an end
Here comes your end, here comes your end
Forsake, forsake
Forsake your lifeForsake your lifeReflections, reflections
Of a past that you can't forget
Reflections, reflections
Of a time, you can't forgetYou saw, your clouded past
Flash before your eyes
Forsake, forsake
Forsake your lifeBrainwashing, brainwashing you
Brainwashing, brainwashing you
Brainwashing, brainwashing you
Brainwashing, brainwashing youDid you saw, your clouded past
Flash before your eyesYour reasons for leaving
And your breaking this evening
And your reasons for leaving
And your breaking this eveningAnd you saw the pain that you hide inside
And you damn the dayReflections, reflections
