Losing Your Love

Jerry Reed

Chasing the night crowd out on the town
Every night a new party and I'm always the clown
Losing your love woman is making a fool out of meAnd if everyone's noticed since you've been away
How I'll over do it with this new part I play
Losing your love woman is making a fool out of meThis happy carefree face and my friends see
They know it's a lie
They seem to know that since you're not with me
I've gotta laugh or I cry
Always the first one to come to the party
And never alone
Always the last to leave when it's over
Afraid to go home
Cause that's when the laughter turns to regret
Where mem'ries remind me I'll never forget
Losing your love woman is making a fool out of me
