

It's Warmer In The Basement

Cobra Starship

You can't escape now
I've got you locked inside this room
You know I tip good
And soon, you will love me too Don't be upset now
You know I get angry too
Don't make me hurt you
It's true, no one hears you in this room This is what you get
When you're talking back baby
I never bounce a check
So give it up baby Open up your eyes
I want to watch you cry
Come on come on
The camera's on Now I'm a changed man
But as a boy I was so true
The world can't protect you
Not like money will You want some bread now?
Just promise me you'll never make me believe you
It's true: no one hears you in this room
