Goodbye

At Vance

I've travelled much more than a thousand miles
My only goal was to conquer the world
In countless fights i had to pay my dues
That was the war of my lifeThe years of fear and anger
Have caused scarfs in my soul
But I can't wait no longer
Tryin to break the wallI'm gonna try
I'll never denie
Just listen to me
Cause it's the last good byeI'll tell you why
Your life is a lie
Here's what I say
Just a last good byeThere must be million faces I have seen
I just passed by and didn't spend a word
There's so much pain which couldn't touch my heart
But afterall I realized where I was wrongThe years of fear and anger
Kept me locked inside my room
The time has come and I feel stronger
To tear away the doomI'm gonna try
I'll never denie
Just listen to me
Cause it's the last good byeI'll tell you why
Your life is a lie
Here's what I say
Just a last good bye
