

Truth

The Spill Canvas

What if I led a different life, would you stay?
What if you could only speak the truth, what would you say?

Time doesn't wait for anyone
There is a part in everyday when I lie to myself and say that it's ok, cause if I don't I think I'll go insane.
But the truth is, I only have myself to blame.

Explain to me how you're so damn naive. Think I don't see, see?
Forget what I said, you're only good in bed or on your knees, knees.

Time doesn't wait for anyone
There is a part in everyday when I lie to myself and say that it's ok, cause if I don't I think I'll go insane.
But the truth is, I only have myself to blame.

Time doesn't wait for anyone
There is a part in everyday when I lie to myself and say that it's ok, cause if I don't I think I'll go insane.
But the truth is, I only have myself to blame.

There is a part in everyday when I lie to myself and say that its ok.
