Real Time Love (feat. Adomaa)

Ã‰l

yh yh yh come close only time will tell you know this let's go it's EL baby
i need that real time love baby Give me that real time love baby

So i wake up in the morning and i'm all alone
She's probably on the road headed back to her home
I tried to call her phone leave a message at the tone
Only thing she left behind is the smell of her clone
She thinks i only call her when i wanna bone
Her friends tell her i'm a player with the hardest tone
And i'm too paranoid to tell her that i love her tho
So i just make her moan in the morn she at the door
I kiss her on her eye brow when she goes to sleep
Knowing we can't live together now but i'm hoping she can live for the moment
She fine as hell
If we're meant to be together only time will tell I wanna give my girlfriend all the finest things I swear i wanna move to riches and diamond rings Everybody's got a soulmate we will find ours
Take it one day at a time I need that real time love

Baby tell me that you feel something for me (See the love that we shared)
And i don't really know how i feel about you (about you)
So maybe we should take it slow
We not telling where we'll roll (maybe i can love you)
oh yh
I need a real time love

So i'm sitting on the bed watching a group of ladies

Baby tell me that you feel something for me (See the love that we shared)
And i don't really know how i feel about you (about you)
So maybe we should take it slow
We not telling where we'll roll

oh yh
I need a real time love
