

As Far As I Remember

Papa Roach

This could be my last confession
This could be my last defense
I wish that we could learn our lesson
I wish that we could make amends
And turn the pageChorus:
As far as I remember
It was a day to forgive and forget
You said that you would let go
But I guess you didn't mean what you said
Now it's time to surrender,
Cause I don't wanna live with regret
And nothing lasts forever, as far as I rememberThis could be a new beginning
Or this could be a brutal end
I wish that we could stop pretending
I wish that we could make amends
and turn the pathChorus:
As far as I remember
It was a day to forgive and forget
You said that you would let go
But I guess you didn't mean what you said
Now it's time to surrender,
Cause I don't wanna live with regret
And nothing lasts forever, as far as I rememberI rather die on my feet than live my life on my knees
I rather die on my feet than live my life on my knees
I rather die on my feet than live my life on my kneesChorus:
As far as I remember
It was a day to forgive and forget
You said that you would let go
But I guess you didn't mean what you said
Now it's time to surrender,
Cause I don't wanna live with regret
And nothing lasts forever, as far as I rememberI rather die on my feet than live my life on my knees
I rather die on my feet than live my life on my knees
I rather die on my feet than live my life on my knees
