

Spirit Fade

Kwabs

Lift your head now
The storm is gone
And all we'll breathe
Is hopeful songRaise a hand
To feel for rain
The walls are fallen
And weathers changedBlessed figures
All set in stone
Gone to hide in shade
All the mountains
We rush to climb
I have seen them fadeMaybe I'm afraid
To see
Maybe I'm afraid
To go freeThe darker shadows
Did find me weak
I called to the heavens
To find my peaceRage and hunger
I ran the night
To love and wonder
Made something rightSoaring dreams
that left their hands
I have seen them fall
And worldly fathers
I longed to reach
I can hear them callMaybe I'm afraid
To see
Maybe I'm afraid
To go freeLift your head now
The storm is gone
And all we'll breathe
Is hopeful songRaise a hand
To feel for rain
The walls are fallen
And weathers changedBlessed figures
All set in stone
Gone to hide in shade (and weathers changed)
All the mountains
We rush to climb

I have seen them fadeAs we walk through life

We look up

We look up
