Whenever

Outlandish

Where ever it goes
Where ever I go
Where ever we go
Where ever I go
Where ever it goes
Where ever we goTo whom it may concern I think I lost someone
I think I heard my mother cry I think I left someone Think I saw myself commit homicide kill someone
The sweetest thing you have ever seen I think I hurt someone
I am running on a cloudy day
With a mind state far from ok nowhere to stay
And none to pray for me five times a day
Did I mention that I was brought up to the sky
To clarify I was put on a high to represent my body to the fullest still I am rowdy
Though not blessed with the same earthly riches like the Saudi I got spirit so they are bounty hunting
No mercy shown it's a conspiracy all over me won't leave me aloneBy the look in your eyes
I can tell you gonna cry
Is it over me
If it is save your tears cause I'm not worth it you'll see
For I'm the type of boy who is always on the run Where ever I lay my hat that's my home
I'm telling you that's my homeWhere ever it goes
Where ever I go
Where ever we go
That's my homeWhere ever I go
Where ever it goes
Where ever we go
I'm telling you that's my homeDonde quiera que me encuentre
Donde quiera que yo vaya
Ese es mi hogar esa es mi casa
Soy como una pluma
Que es llevada por el viento
Libre como el aire, sin fronteras
Soy como el universo Pirata sin modales
dueno de tus mares
tu amor yo me he robado
y sola has quedado
no soy digno de tus lagrimas

no llores tus dolores me los llevo estas en mis recuerdos
no me justifico
y te pido mil disculpas
si pudiera cambiaria
pero esta es mi conducta
si algun dia yo me asento seria a tu lado dormiria sosegado en tus brazos por ahora te digo adios algun dia nos veremos no guardes el rencor y si los bellos besos porque a veces la vida es loca (loca loca)
a veces ganas unas
a veces pierdes otras[Translated] Wherever I find myself
Where ever I go
That's my house
That's my home
I'm like a feather
Conducted by the wind
Free like air
Without borders
Like the universe
A pirate without manners
Proprietor of your seas
I have stolen your love
And now lonely, there you are
I'm not worthy of your tears
Don't cry, I'm taking your pain away
You'll be in my memory
I can't justify my self
I apologize a thousand times
If I could change I would
But this is my way of being
If one day I settle
It would be by your side, Ill sleep peacefully in your arms
But for now I say goodbye, someday we'll see each other Don't keep the rancour, only our beautiful kisses
'cause sometimes life is crazy Sometimes you win some Sometimes you loose some.Where ever it goes
Where ever I go
Where ever we go
Where ever it goes
Where ever we go

I'm telling you that's my homeNever ever really sow me coming Never ever really heard me knocking Could it be that you were busy working Thinking about him and forgetting about me You got to be, (got to be) down with me (down with me) Coz only then I'll be (then I'll be) down for real(down for real) where ever I lay my hat that's my homeWhere ever it go Where ever I goes
Where ever we go
Where ever we go
I'm telling you that's my home
