

Whenever

Outlandish

Where ever it goes
Where ever I go
Where ever we go
Where ever I go
Where ever it goes

Where ever we go To whom it may concern I think I lost someone

I think I heard my mother cry I think I left someone Think I saw myself commit homicide kill someone

The sweetest thing you have ever seen I think I hurt someone

I am running on a cloudy day

With a mind state far from ok nowhere to stay

And none to pray for me five times a day

Did I mention that I was brought up to the sky

To clarify I was put on a high to represent my body to the fullest still I am rowdy

Though not blessed with the same earthly riches like the Saudi I got spirit so they are bounty hunting

No mercy shown it's a conspiracy all over me won't leave me alone By the look in your eyes

I can tell you gonna cry

Is it over me

If it is save your tears cause I'm not worth it you'll see

For I'm the type of boy who is always on the run

Where ever I lay my hat that's my home

I'm telling you that's my home Where ever it goes

Where ever I go

Where ever we go

That's my home Where ever I go

Where ever it goes

Where ever we go

I'm telling you that's my home Donde quiera que me encuentre

Donde quiera que yo vaya

Ese es mi hogar esa es mi casa

Soy como una pluma

Que es llevada por el viento

Libre como el aire, sin fronteras

Soy como el universo

Pirata sin modales

dueno de tus mares

tu amor yo me he robado

y sola has quedado

no soy digno de tus lagrimas

no llores tus dolores me los llevo estas en mis recuerdos
no me justifico
y te pido mil disculpas
si pudiera cambiaria
pero esta es mi conducta
si algun dia yo me asento seria a tu lado dormiria sosegado en tus brazos por ahora te digo adios algun dia nos veremos no guardes el rencor y si los bellos besos porque a veces la vida es loca (loca loca)
a veces ganas unas
a veces pierdes otras[Translated]

Wherever I find myself
Where ever I go
That's my house
That's my home
I'm like a feather
Conducted by the wind
Free like air
Without borders
Like the universe
A pirate without manners
Proprietor of your seas
I have stolen your love
And now lonely, there you are
I'm not worthy of your tears
Don't cry, I'm taking your pain away
You'll be in my memory
I can't justify my self
I apologize a thousand times
If I could change I would
But this is my way of being
If one day I settle
It would be by your side, Ill sleep peacefully in your arms
But for now I say goodbye, someday we'll see each other Don't keep the rancour, only our beautiful kisses
'cause sometimes life is crazy
Sometimes you win some Sometimes you loose some.Where ever it goes
Where ever I go
Where ever we go
Where ever it goes
Where ever we go

I'm telling you that's my home
Never ever really sow me coming Never ever really heard me knocking Could it be that you were busy working
 Thinking about him and forgetting about me
 You got to be, (got to be) down with me (down with me) Coz only then I'll be (then I'll be) down for real(down for real)
where ever I lay my hat that's my home
Where ever it go
 Where ever I goes
 Where ever we go
That's my home
Where ever I go
 Where ever we go
I'm telling you that's my home
