Gasoline Kisses for Everyone

Park

I think I'd be lying if I said I don't enjoy this Waking up soaked in sweat wondering who you're lying with
The sinking center in me dips to reach that perfect place
Where we've all been trapped before, caught living in the life you missedThe reason, and had to leave
Held your breath and couldn't see
Missed the reason, and had to leave
Held your breath and couldn't seeI hear songs of this cancer coming on
I love the sound of your voice breaking off
So I sing along until you're gone
And out of the canvas we paint this songI think I'd be lying if I said I didn't miss this Slipping off the edge of the bed, I know I could kiss you better than that
One more try, one more good night
Don't pull away so fast, 10 more seconds is all I askYou missed the reason, and had to leave
Held your breath and couldn't see
Missed the reason, and had to leave
Held your breath and couldn't seeI hear songs of this cancer coming on
I love the sound of your voice breaking off
So I sing along until you're gone
And out of the canvas we paint this songOne more try, one more good night
One more try, one more good night
So bad, this feeling never catches up
And burnt red are the arms of a sunburned boy in loveI know what you're all about now
I know where the engine runs out
I know what you're all about now
I know where the engine runs outSo I sing along until you're gone
Sing along until you're goneYou're busy fucking everyone
You're busy fucking everyone
You're busy fucking everyone
You're busy fucking everyoneI think you're the one
I think you're the one
