The Strength I Call My Own

Dry Kill Logic

And I will wander on alone, the strength that I will call my own
Inside my mind, there is something left to find
It's like this focus, not no hocus pocus
Bullshit, don't quit before I have to throw a fit
You want this, need this, don't miss all this
Lies, lies, lies, liesAnd I wander on alone, the strength that I will call my own
Inside my mind, there is something left to find
It's like this focus, not no hocus pocus
Bullshit, don't quit before I have to throw a fit
You want this, need this, don't miss all thisYour hostile lifestyle contributes to my profile
And this shit, that shit, all a bunch of bullshit
You sit back, lay back, enjoy your fuckin' kickbacks
Explode, unload, just like you're told
Lies, lies, lies, liesAnd I will wander on alone, the strength that I will call my own
Everything I say comes back to haunt me
Everything I say will come back to haunt me
Lies, lies, lies, lies
And I will wander on alone, the strength that I will call my own
