Fun 100

Locked down and alienated, confused and complicated

Now it seems you still have my heart

Shot down and unaccepted

Sometimes i get the feeling everything is tearing out my heartBut im scared of what ill find

The search for answers just keeps going nowhere

All i know is that its killing me inside

As i raise this final bottle to the skyHere's to promises that die

Here's to all the nights we said our last goodbyes

As we burned another day off all our lives

Here's to memories that will fade, like the photographs that scream of better days

Its all weighing on my mindKnocked down and devastated refused and understated

now I see how you stole my heart now I'm forced to breathe without you sometimes I get the feeling everything is tearing us apartBut im scared of what ill find

The search for answers just keeps going nowhere

All i know is that its killing me inside

As i raise this final bottle to the skyHere's to promises that die

Here's to all the nights we said our last goodbyes

As we burned another day off all our lives

Here's to memories that will fade, like the photographs that scream of better days

Its all weighing on my mindBut im scared of what ill find

The search for answers just keeps going nowhere

All i know is that its killing me inside

As i raise this final bottle to the skyHere's to promises that die

Here's to all the nights we said our last goodbyes

As we burned another day off all our lives

Its all weighing on my mind, weighing on my mind (my mind)

Weighing on my mind
