

You'll Never Miss Me...('Til I'M Gone)

Terry Dexter

Oh, hey, ooh yeahBaby I feel disrespected
Aren't you playing with my mind, ooh?
Lately I feel so neglected
Tell me is it just a waste of my time, ooh
You're not the same man that I fell in love with Cause you used to bring me flowers
And do that gentle kiss on my head
When you first met me
Maybe it's not meant to be
Cause if you don't show me you love me
I swear I'm gonna leave[1] - You'll never miss me till I'm gone
And that's when I'm gonna leave
I swear I'm gonna leave
And if you don't show me, you love me
Baby our love's not meant to beTell me what kind of woman would make sure that you're fed Bring your breakfast in bed, beside who? Who?
I'd made sure the apartment's never dirty
But when you get home you don't even kiss me, oh yeah
My friends keep telling me I should leave you alone
But I just say they don't know you, no, no, no, ooh
But lately I feel that contradictions and I'm trying
So what do I do, oh yeah ooh?(I don't know just what to do)
I don't know just what to do
Maybe I should just say goodbye to you[Repeat 1]You just don't care
The way you used to Cause when it comes to love I'm giving way more than you
Boy you better listen to what I gotta say
And show me love
Or find a girl that's easy to play[Repeat 1]
