Operative Word

Comeback Kid

The blood is left on my hands and it's up to me to wash it a way. It's up to me to make it right. Forget the past what's done is done, I always said so easily. Now its time I live my word living in those days that hold me back, they hold me back, they hold me down. I knew this wouldn't get me far just a way from you. Full of myself and I know that there's something inside of me that I can give, that I can give to you. So many times I looked away, passing someone off but I'm just the same. Never gave you a chance now that's a chance that ill never takes. It won't hold me down again; it won't take me down again. Ill live my words.
