

Longer Letter Later

Steve Wariner

Dear Annie, I'm sorry it's been a long, long time
There's so much on my mind
I want to call you, I'm dropping you this line
Lieu of walls I can't climb
Thought I'd let you know Since I let you go I've come to rue the day
A silly card I guess but I must confess
There's so much more to say
Longer letter later I blew it, I know it
And all I have to show is this heartache I feel
I may be crazy, but everything I know
Tells me try and appeal Are you having fun?
Have you found someone
To shed new light on you? Maybe pen and ink
Will make you stop and think
Of all that we've been through
Longer letter later If only you could see this brand new me
I know you'd change your plan Here's the postscript now
Meant to show you how
I'm a different man
Longer letter later
Longer letter later
