

Let's Just See

Engineers

I'm dropping out of time
Blown where the wind goes
There's nothing I won't do There's nothing I won't say
Whether we win or lose
Don't drop a single line Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far it is Tried to reverse my pride
All those many miles home
There's nowhere I can't leave There's nowhere I can't leave
Don't wait to hear the news
No way that I can stay Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far it is
Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far it is Let's just see how far it is
Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far it is Let's just see how far it is
Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far we can go
Let's just see how far it is Let's just see how far it is
Let's just see how far we can go
