Nothing

Five Foot Thick

Dead inside eyes as cold as ice This pain with in I can't deny This time emotion pourin' over Anger hate joy and bliss and at Times it don't compare to this And I don't know which way to turn I lost my way will I never learn?

They say it's best to have loved and
To have lost than never to have truly loved
At all, to try to fail to reach to Touch the sun and fall, to win the

Fight but lose the war, overwhelmed I gasp for breath I'm drowning in my Own restraints my frustrations clouds My mind, I'll walk away leave it behind

[Repeat: x4]
My mind is made and there's nothing
You can say

[Repeat: x2]

What you see, what you see it's not Really me a mere shell of what I once

Was, an empty shell of what I once was

They say it's best to have loved and Lost than never to have truly loved At all, to try to fail or reach to Touch the sun and fall, to win the

Fight but lose the war, overwhelmed Gasp for breath I'm drowning in my Own restraints my frustrations clouds My mind, I'll walk away leave it behind

[Repeat: x4] My mind is made and there's nothing

You can say

They say it's best to loved and lost Regardless of the final cost I've given all I have to give and in The end tell me is it all worth it?

I can't take it will I make it through This before it fuckin' kills me, this is Hopeless I have to stop this before I Reach the point of no return, I can't

Feel it I feel numb now embrace the Pain and find the strength to pull
Through it before I lose it
I have nothing I am nothing

[Repeat: x4]
My mind is made and there's nothing
You can say

[Repeat: x3] Look what I've done
