

Tried And True (Live Studio)

Ween

At the dawn, I woke, I was alone, rising
I called you on, the force, of time and space, calling
And as she came, to me, I fell back down, realizing Oh that it's cool, for you, to love me now, I'm everythingEverything, 'cause tried, and true, I see the light in you
Oh han you dig in my soul, could you smell my whole, life?You bent the edge, eclipsed, and turned around, aligning
And though the dark, sparked rays of violet light, blinding
I went about, the job, of sowing thoughts, and feelings
Oh some were good, some bad, I felt the cries, of healing'Cause tried and true, I see the light in you
Oh can you dig in my soul, could you smell my whole, life?Rise, my Dawn, you've been awake too long
Let me rest in time, while I blow your mindAt the dawn, I woke, I was alone, rising (I got ya)
I called you on, the force, of time and space, calling (see them)
And as she came, to me, I fell back down, realizing (creation) that it's cool, for you, to love me now, I'm everything (I am)Everything,'cause tried and true, I see the light in you
Can you dig in my soul, could you smell my whole, life?
