This Day Of Change

Run Kid Run

Back up, let's stop and start again
The words I said now have new meaning
You have changed the ways I once newYour love it found this heart of mine
Showed me you're real and that you're with me
And now I'm growing stronger in youPromises I found in you
Along the way
Giving all to something new
Couldn't be the sameToday's the day
I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at all, yeahA way of faith, I once was told
I'm finally finding on my own
And now I'm seeing for the first timeA world that's filled with treasures stored
I've traded in for something more
And now I'm living with a new hopePromises I found in you
Along the way
Giving all to something new
Couldn't be the sameToday's the day
I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at allToday's the day
I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at all, found at allI have lost myself in you
And I'll keep holding on, holding onToday's the day
I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at allToday's the day
I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at all, yeahI'm coming around
I'm coming around
I'm coming around
