

Dead Promises

Plastic Flowers

Watching all the faces gathered in the end,
It feels so strange to absorb my tone as I can free myself into your thoughts And be so nice (x2),
As you can choose between me and time,
Me and time Watching all the faces gathered in the end,
I feels so strange to absorb my tone as I can free myself, Into your thoughts And she can tell,
Found alone underground, ephemeral, admired and so weak (x2)
There is damage but there is no damage
There is damage but there is no damage inside Borders falling off the sky why don't you leave me standing in my nest? (x5) Leave me standing in my nest (x2)
