

Dead and Gone

Trivium

A fear of dying, forgotten men
Just a number, a grain of sand Time won't heal, it's running out on me
All your pain, it's more than I could take What still rages
Will you keep fighting when I'm gone Through the ages
Will you keep fighting, when I am dead and gone
Dead and gone I hope to die with no regrets
To leave a man, no one forgets Time won't heal, it's running out on me
All your pain, it's more than I could take What still rages
Will you keep fighting when I'm gone Through the ages
Will you keep fighting, when I am dead and gone Bearing down, bearing down on me (dead and gone)
The weight of all my insecurities Closing in, closing in on me
The walls collapse, I'll never face the pain What still rages
Will you keep fighting when I'm gone What still rages
Will you keep fighting when I'm gone Through the ages
Will you keep fighting, when I am dead and gone
Dead and gone
